Should we have trust in our abilities? What are the benefits of our trust in ourselves?

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions below: (5)

The benefit of receiving enough sleep is essential to our inner wellbeing. Not enough sleep means that we lack the opportunity to restore ourselves. If we don't take a good and sound sleep, it will affect our mood and can result in bad behaviour and performance problems. When we sleep, our body takes rest but brain remains active. Sleep lays the groundwork for a productive day ahead. Although most of the people benefit the most from eight hours of sleep each night, they do not always achieve this goal.

a. Answer the following questions:

Q1. What happens to our brain when we sleep?

Q2. How many hours of sleep are required each night?
